

Charity Shop Volunteers Wanted

Koala North West exists to provide children and their families with tailored practical and emotional support that improves wellbeing, reduces isolation and supports both children and care-givers to thrive. We offer a diverse range of services and support programmes to meet the needs of children and their families. In the last 21 years our staff and volunteers have supported 15,165 families and 18,179 children in our local community and our charity shops in Moreton and Claughton Village help raise money towards this support. We are looking to recruit the following volunteer position:

We're looking for volunteers who can give 3 hours (or more!) of their time in the shop each week!

Location: Moreton Cross or Claughton Village

Opening Hours: Monday to Saturday

Volunteer Visual Merchandiser

Do you have an eye for design and a creative flair?
Your ability to make eye-catching windows and inviting in-store displays could be just what we need!

Help us to show off our fabulous donated stock at our charity shops. You will have the ability to see the potential of the clothes, accessories and other goods donated to design eye-catching visual displays that create an atmosphere which will entice customers into the shop.

This is an interesting role with great opportunities for volunteers to really develop their retail experience.

Your creativity will be the main requirements of this role.

Benefits of becoming a Koala North West Volunteer:

- Gain genuine experience volunteering in a retail environment;
- Great way to meet new people; Enhance your CV and skills whilst volunteering with us;
- Be part of a team and make a positive change to the community;
- Opportunity to utilise and develop your transferable skills

Travel expenses will be reimbursed.

We like our volunteers to be happy and comfortable with the role they are doing, so we provide full training, if required, and support is always available.

We can be very flexible around parenting, caring, health, employment, education and any other commitments you have.
